A Simple Way to Reduce Wrinkles

Remember that wrinkles and baggi-ess of cheek or chin are due to the uscular tissue losing its strength and, rinking. The skin is then too large area to fit such tissue smoothly. To remedy this condition there's nothing so effective, so quick-acting not a simple wash totion easily made at home. Just get an ounce of pure powdered saxolite at your druggist's, and a half pint of witch hazel, mix the two and bathe your face in the liquid. This at once tightens the skin and solidies the underlying tissues—which of course, amooths out the lines and draws in the sagging skin. It also stimulates capillary circulation bringing natural color to faded cheeks.
